girls who code

FAIRBANKS NORTH STAR BOROUGH PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Join the movement @ Noel Wien Library!

Want to learn how to build an app or design a video game to change the world through code?

What is Girls Who Code?

Girls Who Code is a national non-profit organization leading the movement to inspire, educate and equip girls with the computing skills to pursue 21st century opportunities. Through our club we aim to close the gender gap in technology.

Join today!

JOIN US FOR AN INFORMATION NIGHT!

Who: Anyone interested in learning more about the club (club is for 6th-12th grade girls)

Where: Noel Wien Library, Auditorium

When: Wednesday, August 28th, 6:30 - 7:00 PM

Facilitators: Christine Osciak ,MLIS, Young Adult Librarian; Laura Lundell, teacher and UAF Computer Science student; Rachel Crosley, UAF Computer Science grad student, & Juliet Shepherd, Tech Led Development Project Manager

Questions or suggestions: christine.osciak@fnsb.us or 459-1107

We'll go over the what the club is all about, see what previous clubs have created, and discuss club details for Noel Wien. If you already know you want to join simply go to our webpage to register and we'll see you September 11th @ 4:30 PM, in the Auditorium.

For more information and updates please visit our webpage

https://fnsblibrary.org/gwc